

LETTER OF UNDERSTANDING BETWEEN
University of Ottawa (the “Employer”)
And
Association of Part-time Professors of the University of Ottawa (“APTPUO”)
Regarding
COVID-19 | Impact on 2021 Spring/Summer Course Development and Delivery

WHEREAS the Employer and the APTPUO entered into several Letters of Understanding regarding the impact of COVID-19;

AND WHEREAS, the evolving circumstances regarding the spread of the novel coronavirus COVID-19 in Canada and internationally, the issuance of statements, declarations of emergency, directives, orders and recommendations by public health and government officials in connection with containing the spread of COVID-19 and protecting the public, are likely to continue for an uncertain period and could have an impact on the mode of course delivery during the 2021 Spring/Summer term, (referred to as the “exceptional circumstances”);

NOW THEREFORE, the parties agree as follows:

1. For the 2021 Spring-Summer term, the mode of course delivery will be in-person, online or by remote means as determined by the Employer.
2. The Employer’s health and safety responsibilities as described in Article 3.5 of the Collective Agreement remain and are not affected by this Letter of Understanding.
3. Academic freedom as defined in Article 2.5 of the Collective Agreement includes, but is not limited to, the freedom of the Member to choose the appropriate teaching methods and software.
4. A Member who develops and delivers courses by online or by remote means may request professional development and technical support assistance, such as, but not limited to:
 - a. Central support: Support from the Teaching and Learning Support Service (TLSS).
 - b. Faculty-level support: TLSS trained personnel assigned to faculties as per the distributed model for faculty development (as referred to in the May 5, 2020, Academic Update document created by Aline Germain-Rutherford, Vice-Provost, Academic Affairs). The Dean will consider the Member’s request and decide on a suitable and feasible level of assistance in consultation with the Member.
5. If at any time during the 2021 Spring/Summer term the Employer decides to modify the mode of course delivery (i.e. in-person, online, by remote means), Members may nevertheless, choose to continue the course via the same mode of course delivery as used at the beginning of the course.

6. Notwithstanding Article 10.14.1.3 of the Collective Agreement, Members will retain ownership (copyright) for all materials they develop for use in their distance teaching courses.
7. For courses taught by online or by remote means: The Employer will allocate a one-time amount of one hundred and forty thousand dollars ($140,000) and place it in a fund (the "2021 APTPUO Spring/Summer Supernumerary Fund") to be used for the purpose of paying for 32 hours of additional teaching assistant hours, per Member, for assistance in the preparation and/or delivery of the Member's course(s) during the 2021 Spring/Summer term (the "Purpose").
 - a. Such Member may submit an application in writing to the Dean by no later than May 14, 2021, at 5:00 p.m. and may request additional or new teaching assistant hours for the stated Purpose and that the funding be paid for from the 2021 APTPUO Spring/Summer Online Supernumerary Fund. Due to posting and administrative requirements, the majority of teaching assistant hours could only be available after June 7, 2021.
 - b. The allocation of the 2021 APTPUO Spring/Summer Online Supernumerary Fund will be proportionate to the total number of eligible applications received by the Employer and the amount available in the 2021 APTPUO Spring/Summer Online Supernumerary Fund.
 - c. If there are funds remaining in the 2021 APTPUO Spring/Summer Online Supernumerary Fund as of August 30, 2021, such remaining funds shall be returned to the Employer.
 - d. The provisions of this Section are at all times subject to the availability of qualified teaching assistants and to the relevant provisions of the Collective Agreement between the Employer and CUPE 2626.
 - e. The purpose of the 2021 APTPUO Spring/Summer Online Supernumerary Fund is to provide additional teaching assistance to any teaching assistant allocation norm or policy in an academic unit. For further clarity, Members may not request monetary compensation in lieu of teaching assistant hours provided in the 2021 APTPUO Spring/Summer Online Supernumerary Fund even if they are unable to obtain teaching assistance due to a shortage of CUPE members available to complete the work.
8. A Member may request in writing, stating reasons, that the Employer complete the form based on Canada Revenue Agency (currently the T2200 Form) rules and regulations as required for the employee to use in support of a claim for qualifying employee expenses.
9. This Letter of Understanding is effective on the date of signature by both parties and shall end on August 30, 2021.
10. The Employer and the APTPUO recognize that the Collective Agreement between them expires on August 31, 2021. The Employer and the APTPUO agree that the provisions of this Letter of Understanding shall not remain in effect beyond its expiry date and shall not have binding effect after such date or form part of the succession of any new subsequent collective agreement ratified by the parties. The termination or expiry of this Letter of Understanding prevails over any agreement or any other means that has the effect of continuing or incorporating by reference into a new Collective Agreement letters of understanding existing at the end of the collective bargaining process or on the effective date of a new Collective Agreement.

11. Both parties reserve all of their rights under the Collective Agreement.
12. The APTPUO agrees to withdraw the Notice of Grievance 2021-704 (dated 2021-02-24), as of the effective date of signature of this Letter of Understanding and agrees not to file any similar grievance or grievances with respect to the subject matter of this Letter of Understanding.
13. This Letter of Understanding applies only to the main APTPUO bargaining unit. For further clarity, it does not apply to the OLBI and Toronto/Windsor bargaining units.
14. This Letter of Understanding is without prejudice or precedent to both parties.
